OF KANSAS TO STATEHOOD

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—On the spot where Abraham Lincoln unfurled the Stars and Stripes over Independence Hail on February 22, 1881, there was raised today the flag presented to Philadelphia by the state of Kansas. A similar ceremony had been arranged to take place at the state capitol at Tepeka, Eas, where a flag presented by Philadelphia to Kansas was to be unfurled.

The occasion was a double celebra-tion of Washington's birthday and of the admission of Kansas to statehood, for on February 22, 1881, Lincoln raised the flag of Kansas over the his-torle hall. The dag presented to Kan-sas was made by the Flag house chapof the Daughters of the American for Freedom," a story so thrilling that metropolitan audiences viewed it receatedly in order to be correctly informed upon one of the most sensational escapes ever recorded. Police and detectives baffled for weeks, after Harry Thaw struck the keeper in the face and dashed into a speed-motor car in his wild dash from Matteawan to Canada, the events are correctly recorded until the capture by Canadian officials. Many incidents leading up to the event causing his largest are shown and the three reels are shown and the three reels are filled to the limit with photographic bits of beauties of New York and its environs and it is the only film authorized by Mr. Thaw, as being correct. Vitagraph "Love Will Out," "The Way Home," Biograph, and "Hazards of Helen," No. 2, the Pilot at the R. R. Cut," are other films for today.

Tomorrow for one day only is Charlle Champlin, the world-beater coamedian, in his rip-roaring comesty, "A Night Out," Whatever you do don't miss Charlle Chaplin Wednesday in his supreme masterplecs "A Night Out."
